

SUKKAT SHALOM'S KOL NIDRE CHARITIES 5784/2023

This year we have selected four charities – three of them personally recommended by our members - that between them represent local Jewish and non-Jewish causes, international causes and Israel-Palestine causes.

Raphael at Jami- The Jewish Counselling Service <https://jamiuk.org/raphael-atjami/> provides professional, person-centred treatment and support for young people and adults with mental health challenges, including more complex needs. They also support their clients' families and carers.

Scottish Autism <https://www.scottishautism.org/> provides a wide range of flexible and innovative support services for children and adults across Scotland with a focus on improving quality of life.

Combatants for Peace <https://cfpeace.org> is a jointly initiated and run Palestinian/Jewish organisation that opposes the occupation and seeks solutions that would allow Palestinians and Israelis to lead free, safe, democratic and dignified lives in their homeland.

The Small Things <https://www.thesmallthings.org/> works with orphaned children in the Nkoaranga community in Tanzania. It focuses on wrap - around support to help keep families together whenever possible, and to care for children in family-style homes within the community when this is not possible. Founded by a Jewish Holocaust survivor, this charity is managed and led by Tanzanian staff.
